Two Charged in Fatal Hit-and-Run of Pedestrian in Wheelchair

A man and a woman were charged today in connection with the hit-and-run crash that claimed the life of a Pacoima man in a wheelchair, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Tatiana Cacho (dob 10/25/89) of Pacoima is charged with one count of hit-and-run driving resulting in death in case PA082176.

Christian Salvador Olvera (dob 9/7/91) of North Hollywood is charged with accessory after the fact.

Arraignment is scheduled today in Department S of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, San Fernando Branch.

On Sept. 26, Cacho ran over Manuel De Jesús González, 40, near Terra Bella Street and Cayuga Avenue, the prosecutor said. She then left the accident which led to González's death, the prosecutor added.

Cacho faces up to four years in state prison and Olvera is facing up to three years in prison if convicted as charged.

The recommended bail for Cacho is $75,000 and $25,000 for Olvera.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles Police Department, Valley Traffic Division.
